

Eat Smart Sheffield and Food for Life

The story so far

Commissioned by Sheffield City Council in 2019, Eat Smart Sheffield, in partnership with Food for Life, supports schools to make long term changes to their food culture and give pupils and their families the confidence, skills and knowledge to grow, cook and enjoy good food.

120

schools have engaged with Eat Smart Sheffield

47k

children have been reached by the programme

115

schools are enrolled with Food for Life

26

schools have achieved the Food for Life Foundation Award

43

schools have achieved the Food for Life Bronze Award

1

school has achieved the Food for Life Silver Award

1700

pieces of evidence have been submitted in support of Food for Life Awards

70%

of children have access to Food for Life Served Here certified meals

170

school staff have been trained to deliver cooking, growing and sensory food education

90

students from Sheffield Hallam University have had placements with Eat Smart Sheffield

60

schools have received an Eat Smart Sheffield grant

100+

parents have attended webinars and workshops on healthy eating