

HOW A FOOD FOR LIFE FARM DAY WILL NOURISH YOUR TEAM

As a Food for Life Served Here (FFLSH) caterer we know you have a passion for great food. You walk the talk on sustainability every day. Do you ever ask yourself if it's worth it? Does it really make a difference?

Come and see how your everyday actions are helping save the planet and the people you feed.

The Soil Association helps safeguard the most stunning countryside in Britain.

We're inviting you to spend the day with us to learn about farming 'as it should be'. You and your team will learn organic methods and their impact. You'll get how the FFLSH standards work on the ground.

"This visit has enhanced and revitalised my understanding and knowledge so that I can make informed decisions on purchase and growing."

Tracey Parnwell, PAL Group London

And then of course, food. Call it lunch, call it industrial espionage – we'll lay on a delicious organic spread for all tastes and requirements.

Your day can be structured to meet the needs of your crew. Whether you want team building fun, professional development or a fabulous reward for an outstanding quarter, your FFL Farm Day will serve up a truly memorable and inspiring day.

"Really worthwhile and lots of fun too."
Lindsay Higgins, Head of Development,
Educaterers

Fresh air, great learning. Fabulous food.

"You could see it hit home, and really stayed with people. It was a great day"
